NEW MUSIC CONCERTS SPECIAL

"POLAND — CANADA: A LINK?"

A SPECIAL 3-PART EVENING OF FILM, MUSIC & DISCUSSION

Polish composer/pianist Zygmunt Krauze and Canadian composers Walter Buczynski and Peter Paul Koprowski each consider this topic from their own perspective. Following this discussion will be a performance of Boguslaw Schäffer's "Non-Stop", to be performed by all three composers. The evening will include the launching of the film series "Sound & Silence", directed by Andrzej Kostenko and hosted by Rolf Lieberman, with a film portrait of Krzysztof Penderecki. Krauze acted as artistic director for the series, in which John Cage acts as special commentator.

Poland: Canada — The Connection

Warsaw composer/pianist Zygmunt Krauze's illustrious career includes studies with Nadia Boulanger, lectures given at Darmstadt, Basle, Stockholm, and the U.S., and recordings and performances world-wide. He visits New Music Concerts as an active composer and as the current president of the International Society for Contemporary Music. Also on tonight's concert will be performances by prominent Toronto composer Walter Buczynski and Polish-Canadian composer Peter Paul Koprowski, recent winner of the Jules Léger prize for chamber music.

CONCERT

Konzert 1

In cooperation with the Goethe Institute as part of the German cultural festival "Fokus", New Music Concerts presents the first of two concerts featuring recent music by German composers. During this evening, two works of Walter Zimmermann will be presented including the first North American performance of Ataraxia, the piano concerto to be premiered a few weeks earlier, at the Donaueschingen Festival with the young Scottish soloist James Clapperton. The Léger-prizewinning "A Propos... et le Baron Perché?" of Canadian composer Denys Bouliane, a resident of Köln, will be performed on this concert as well as several works revealing the untamed theatrical imagination of Hans-Joachim Hespos.

"HOW TO LIVE WITH TRADITION"

From immensely different perspectives, our four guest composers Denys Bouliane, Hans-Joachim Hespos, Klaus Hinrich Stahmer and Walter Zimmermann exchange views on this topic, pertinent to so many composers in both Canada and Germany. Related German videos will follow the discussion.

Konzert 2

The world premiere of Klaus Hinrich Stahmer's "Momentaufnahme no. 6" for solo percussion and ensemble will be featured on this concert with Trevor Tureski as soloist. This work and Stahmer's first "Momentaufnahme" for chamber ensemble, based on George Ionesco's novel "Le Solitaire", comprises the first half of the program. More surprises from Hans-Joachim Hespos and the demanding virtuosic woodwind writing of Denys Bouliane complete the evening.

Bass Bonanza

Wolfgang Guttler's fame is only partly due to winning major competitions and performing for 10 years in the bass section of the Berlin Philharmonic under Herbert von Karajan. He is also a founding member of Trio Basso, as well as a renowned teacher, soloist and chamber musician. Another winner of the Geneva contest and highly sought-after soloist is Canadian double bass artist Joel Quarrington, who will share the stage with one of Toronto's most versatile musicians and a regular performer with New Music Concerts, Roberto Occhipinti. To complete the ensemble, acclaimed jazz bassist/pianist/composer Don Thompson will perform with this trio in his newly commissioned work, bringing the evening to a fascinating close.

The Cello Of Siegfried Palm

At times in musical history, the talents of certain performers have been responsible for large bodies of works written especially for them. New Music Concerts is proud to present such a personality, legendary cellist Siegfried Palm, who will perform several works composed for and dedicated to him. On the same program will be presented a newly commissioned work for Siegfried Palm, Robert Aitken (flute) and chamber ensemble by Canadian Christopher Butterfield. Robert Aitken will also perform in a North American premiere of Mauricio Kagel's latest chamber work with an accompaniment of 6 offstage instruments, conducted by Siegfried Palm.

A Taste Of Portugal

Jorge Peixinho's varied experience and extensive knowledge of contemporary arts in Portugal have made him one of the most informed and imaginative composers in the country. Having worked with Boulez, Stockhausen, Petrassi and Nono, his varied output spans a wide range of possible musical combinations, from electroacoustic, to film & theatre, to free collective improvisation, and to the works featured on this concert. A newly commissioned work is the planned highlight of his visit. Peixinho is joined by Montreal composer Gilles Tremblay, who brings his work for mime, 2 trumpets and 2 percussionists to Toronto for the first time, as well as the highly colourful "Vers", the third in a series of larger chamber works featuring unusual combinations of instruments.

*Elliot Carter Returns:
The Recent Smaller Works*

Elliot Carter, one of the foremost American creative figures of this century, returns to New Music Concerts to assist at a performance of his newest chamber works, including the 4th and most recent of his celebrated string quartets. The concert begins with Canadian José Evangelista's "Ô Bali", a piece commemorating the work of Colin McPhee, and will also include one of the sensations of the 1987 International Society for Contemporary Music Festival in West Germany, "Doll's House Story", to be performed by members of NEXUS. In this work, Hungarian composer Márta István's imagination does not stop with the excitement of conventional percussion instruments, but moves into the vast world of children's toys.
